ORDER

Issued: February 14, 2017

Released: February 14, 2017

On February 3, 2017, the Enforcement Bureau filed a Status Report in which it noted that it had subpoenaed Ms. Tammy Gremminger, and that Ms. Gremminger had produced the subpoenaed documents and had otherwise indicated that she would comply with the subpoena.

On February 7, 2017, counsel for Lake Broadcasting (Lake) filed an Opposition to the Bureau's Status Report, claiming that the Bureau's Status Report was "wholly inadequate." Id. at 1. Lake also requested copies of the subpoenas and Ms. Gremminger's responses to the subpoenas, as well as "a further Prehearing Conference to explore the facts surrounding the scurrilous accusations made against Michael Rice" with regard to the alleged witness intimidation of Ms. Gremminger. Id.

In the interest of keeping this proceeding moving, the Presiding Judge has determined that it would be more expedient to address any remaining issues in a Prehearing Conference. The hearing date will also be reset at that time. Cf. Order, FCC 16M-37 (rel. Dec. 22, 2016).
